

Matterhorn: Rockefeller Habits Workshop for Multiple Companies

Petra Coach led quarterly planning sessions are designed to keep the Rockefeller Habits process alive in your organization, and your team focused on execution of your priorities to grow and scale your company:

- Limited to (10) companies and (5) participants per company
- Your team receives a focused experience for a day of alignment
- Review your current position and create your plan for the upcoming quarter with company and individual priorities
- Work with your team during this focused time to ensure alignment
- A certified Petra coach will be on-site the day of the session to provide individualized coaching and assistance

Petra Coach access throughout the quarter. You and your team will have a coach and coach coordinator assigned to your team.

- The Petra team will proactively reach out to ensure your team is moving forward on your quarterly planning objectives
- Your team can reach out and ask for assistance anytime

Petra Materials will be provided for each attendee for each planning session, specifically for you and your team. A copy of Scaling Up will be provided to each new attendee as well as surveys sent to team members prior to collect needed data on the business to assist your team in making decisions.

Online tool for accountability is required to participate. The Align platform – www.aligntoday.com – is used for everything within this program. (The fee is based on the number of users. Cost is $5 per user per month.)

Investment is based on annual participation and each participating company will be billed $750 (via Credit Card) at the beginning of each month with a one-time $1,000 enrollment fee for the program.

Mastering the Rockefeller Habits Workshop and/or annual planning is provided at beginning of year.

Currently available in Nashville and San Antonio but available in any location based on demand.
